Living the principles

I am so lucky to always work with fantastic people that always support me. I get attached to the individuals that I care for and you get to be a part of their lives through triumphs and even tragedies. The bond I have with everyone is real because we are all a family.

in her own words

“ words of wisdom:

You are going to be a huge part of their lives and they are going to be a big part of yours. You'll create a bond and be with each other every step of the way; through the good times and even the bad ones. It is what will help your relationship get stronger.

Through your bond, you will get to know them almost better than you know yourself!

about Jane...

"Jane has a caring heart and a compassionate caregivers. She often does little things for participants and never shares or asks for recognition. We often get feedback from families of the things she does and the difference she makes. No matter what she is going through she always comes to work with a smile on her face. She relates to those she works with by the relationships she builds which creates trusts which is important to those who are allowing us to come into their homes to provide supports and services. She has been a true blessing in the years she has been with Capital Home Care."
