

5 years

Living the principles

“

I love getting to take the individuals I care for out and giving them a chance to experience so many different things like volunteering and making new friendships. The love and compassion that I see with everyone, including the staff, is fantastic because we are all making a difference. We don't just make a difference in their lives, but they teach us so much about life and the world around us.

”

Hannah Shelley

Direct Support Professional - Home Care