

5 years

Living the principles

“

I love the opportunity to learn something new every day. Getting to know new people and working with them throughout the day has been my favorite aspect of the job. The flexibility of working in an office and also being able to go out and interact with everyone has been so rewarding. I look forward to continuing my journey with UCP!

”

Shawna Brought

Scheduler, Home Care