Living the principles

“ Without a doubt, the most rewarding part of the job is the guys. If I can help start their day with a smile, then I've done my job. I enjoy watching them all grow and prosper, and do things they haven't done before. But the highlight of my time here has been watching Joe blossom. He came to us in a wheelchair and knew only 6-10 words. Now he calls each staff member by name and has a vocabulary of about 100 words. About six months ago he started walking down the stairs on his own, holding the handrails. That was a huge accomplishment. ”
