

I stay at UCP because....

I enjoy helping others. I see the individuals as an extension of my family. I believe that in some small way that I help them stay as independent as they possibly can. I specifically enjoy my time at Pathways because I can see the fruits of the labor when they move out on their own.

My advice for new staff...

Approach each day with a positive attitude. See them as individuals not just clients.

Wanda Watson
DSP, Residential Services

Celebrating 20 years

