One or more of these high-risk warning signs should prompt referrals for specialist evaluation

- ❑ Demonstrates asymmetrical posture and/or movement after 4 months
- ❑ Head continues to lag after 4 months
- ❑ Persistently fists hands after 4 months
- ❑ Does not reach with hands to feet after 6 months
- ❑ Does not bring hands to midline of body after 6 months
- ❑ Requires support to sit after 9 months
- ❑ Legs feel stiff and/or tight between 6 to 12 months
- ❑ Prefers to use one hand more than another before 12 months

Boychuck Z, Andersen ,J Bussières A, et al. Dev Med Child Neurol. 2020